Klosters Music

An extraordinary past

Though Klosters Music has only been taking place for the past few years, Klosters itself has been known for over 100 as a beloved resort for travellers to come and get their skiing fix! Encased by the breathtaking Swiss alps, this perfectly placed village epitomises everything there is to love about Switzerland's dramatic landscapes. It's no wonder that everyone, from the British royal family to a host of celebrities in-between, have flocked here to spend their winter and summer vacations and gave Klosters the name "Hollywood on the Rocks". Inspired by great film stars of the day, the musical "Singing in the Rain" with Gene Kelly will be shown at Klosters Music on the big screen on Friday, 5 August, with live orchestral music by the City Light Symphony Orchestra.

Before Klosters became a popular holiday spot, however, it was a quiet locale established eight centuries ago. From near total seclusion to dizzying fame, the village has had quite the journey throughout time... a journey that the Art & Music Foundation, Klosters eventually decided to capture through Klosters Music. They put together the festival to shine a light on what this special location has to offer, and each year, the event takes its audience on an audio-centric adventure that's as diverse as the history of Klosters itself. It's truly something to behold (and hear).

KLOSTERS MUSIC 2022

A Musical Journey

Taking place between 30 July and 7 August 2022, famous soloists, orchestras, ensembles and conductors are set to gather in historic Klosters to take your musical appreciation to new heights.

The event begins with an outstanding orchestral tribute to Romanticism, interspersed with nods to Switzerland's storied past. Elsewhere in the programme, enjoy eclectic musical ecstasy with a Berlin-based Philharmonic group, before listening to a fusion of music and literature performed by Alain Claude Sulzer and Oliver Schnyder. And there are far more acts, besides.

The motto "Zeitreise. A Musical Journey" was deliberately chosen by artistic director David Whelton to musically reflect the 800th anniversary of Klosters
