Barbara Gabrielli elected to the Foundation Board of Klosters Music

At its last meeting, the Board of the Foundation Art & Music, Klosters (Klosters Music) elected Mag. phil. EMBE HSG Barbara Gabrielli to the Foundation Board as of 1 August 2024.

Advance sales for the sixth edition of Klosters Music (27 July to 4 August 2024) have got off to a great start and preparations for the ten concerts featuring internationally renowned artists such as Thomas Hampson, Sir András Schiff, Jan Lisiecki, Maxim Emelyanychev, Alina Ibragimova and many more are well underway.

Klosters Music is delighted to welcome Barbara Gabrielli to the Foundation Board of the Foundation Art & Music, Klosters from 1 August 2024. Barbara Gabrielli comes from South Tyrol and grew up bilingually. She studied History of Art, Archaeology and Romance Languages in Innsbruck and completed an MBE at the University of St. Gallen. As head of the Office for Culture of the Canton of Graubünden, which she is leaving at the end of July, Barbara Gabrielli has played a key role in its development and establishment over the past 15 years. In Barbara Gabrielli, the Foundation Art & Music, Klosters is delighted to have found another member of the Foundation Board who attaches great importance to the cultural development of Klosters and the region, has extensive knowledge of the cultural scene and has excellent connections with cultural artists.

"Klosters Music has impressively succeeded in establishing itself as an important cultural organiser and promoter both in Graubünden and far beyond its borders in a short space of time. I am delighted to be able to help shape the future of the festival," says Barbara Gabrielli of her future commitment to Klosters Music.

Klosters Music 2024 takes place from 27 July to 4 August. Tickets and information are available at www.klosters-music.ch and at the Klosters and Davos tourist offices.
